Best Practice 2

Title of the practice: - Waghire Bazaar (2021-22)

Objectives of the practice:

- To develop innovative ideas, creative thinking & entrepreneurship skills among the students.
- To ingrain the business ethics and professional skills amongst the student.
- To provide adequate basic understanding about the management and specific skill set amongst the students.
- Improve the communication skill effectively.
- To make students aware about how to identify the consumer behaviour, how to tackle them effectively.
- To learn/develop the strategy for generating capital, teamwork & co-operative attitude.
- To develop entrepreneurial skills in the students.
- To improve the employability of the students.

- To groom the students personality.
- Develop self confidence in students
- Evidence of Success
- Good feedback from students
- To improve the practical skills of the student.

The context:

- Presently employment is a choice of self-decision. Acquiring additional skills for employment is a must. Students prefer parallel learning and that saves time. College wants to improve the skill set of students so that they will become employable in good companies.
- Various students have participated in this programme so it becomes necessary to know their students well.
- Understanding the different learning abilities and capacities of the students.
- Motivating and encouraging them when the students underperform.
- Building an effective communication channel between the teachers-parents-students.

The Practice:

There were total Fifty five stalls at the bazaar that showcased a wide range of varieties of foods, beverages, fruits, cosmetics, Handicraft, clothing items, imitation jewellery, accessories, psychological games and funny games etc. The students put up stall individually, and in clusters, which enabled them to understand the various entrepreneurial skills such as generating capital, teamwork, co-operative attitude towards a common objective and more importantly profit -sharing. There was a lot of excitement among participants as creativity at its best was on display. Through this “Waghire Bazaar” participants were learned how to identify the consumer behaviour and how to tackle them effectively.

As part of institute initiative, we conduct various programmes to promote the employability skills of our students. We try make their technical skills are updated and communication and soft skills are in place.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required: The time management is a major concern as lot of academic and non-academic activities are going in parallel. Crowd management in events is also a challenge, however with mutual coordination of students, faculty and administrative staff, things are being managed.

BEST PRACTICE-2

Title of the practice: - Waghire Bazaar 2022-2023

Objectives of the practice:

- Develop innovative ideas, creative thinking, and entrepreneurship skills among students.
- Increase building activity.
- Ingrain business ethics and professional skills among students.
- Provide basic understanding of management and specific skill sets.
- Improve marketing, purchasing, and cost capabilities.
- Enhance decision-making abilities.
- Improve communication skills effectively.
- Make students aware of identifying consumer behaviour and effective tackling.
- Learn and develop strategies for generating capital, teamwork, and cooperative attitudes.
- Develop entrepreneurial skills in students.
- Improve employability and groom students' personalities.
- Develop self-confidence and practical skills in students.

The context:

Empowerment of Employment Choices: In the current landscape, the pursuit of employment has evolved into a self-driven decision-making process. Recognizing this shift, there is a growing emphasis on acquiring additional skills that are indispensable for securing employment opportunities. Acknowledging the significance of self-directed career paths, students are increasingly opting for parallel learning approaches, a strategic move that optimizes their time investments. The college, in response to this dynamic scenario, is committed to enhancing the skill sets of its students to ensure their marketability and employability in reputable companies.

Comprehensive Student Engagement: A multitude of students actively engages in various programs offered by the college, prompting a compelling need for an in-depth understanding of their individual profiles. This engagement fosters a personalized approach to education, recognizing the diverse backgrounds, interests, and aspirations of the student body. By delving into the particulars of each student's participation, the college can tailor its initiatives to address the unique needs of its diverse student community.

Tailoring Education to Diverse Learning Abilities: Recognizing the rich tapestry of learning styles and capacities among students, the college is committed to understanding and accommodating these differences. By acknowledging the diverse learning abilities and capacities present within the student body, the institution aims to create an inclusive educational environment. This approach allows for the customization of teaching methodologies, ensuring that each student can effectively grasp and apply the knowledge and skills imparted.

Motivational Support for Student Performance: Beyond academic achievements, the college recognizes the importance of motivation and encouragement in students' overall development. Addressing instances of underperformance, the institution takes a proactive role in providing the necessary support and motivation to uplift students. This holistic approach not only focuses on academic progress but also considers the broader personal and professional growth of each student.

Establishing Effective Communication Channels: Building robust communication channels between teachers, parents, and students is a cornerstone of the college's commitment to holistic education. Recognizing the symbiotic relationship between these stakeholders, the institution places a premium on transparent and open lines of communication. This ensures that information flows seamlessly, fostering a collaborative atmosphere where all parties are actively involved in the educational journey, contributing to the overall success and well-being of the students.

The Practice:

The Waghire Bazaar, orchestrated by the collaborative efforts of the Department of Commerce and B.Voc on April 19, 2023, served as a platform with a multifaceted aim. This event was strategically designed to cultivate programmatic skills, placing a significant emphasis on fostering entrepreneurship, refining communication abilities, and honing managerial expertise among the participating students. The vibrant showcase featured a total of 43 stalls, each representing various departments of the college and offering a diverse array of products and services. Students actively participated by setting up stalls both individually and in clusters, engaging in a hands-on exploration of entrepreneurial skills. The overarching focus of the event was directed towards cultivating essential attributes such as capital generation, teamwork, a cooperative mindset, and the ethos of profit-sharing. As a result of this immersive experience, participants not only gained insights into identifying consumer behavior but also acquired effective strategies for addressing and engaging them. The Waghire Bazaar became a nexus of excitement, providing a dynamic space that not only facilitated learning but also became a canvas for the vibrant display of creativity among the enthusiastic participants.

Evidence of success:

Almost 1500 students had participated in the program along with the faculty members and non-teaching staff.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required: Efficiently navigating the intricate balance between concurrent academic and non-academic commitments poses a substantial challenge for individuals, necessitating adept time management skills. The orchestration of events introduces an additional layer of complexity, particularly in the realm of crowd management, which emerges as a noteworthy challenge for event organizers. However, these challenges are effectively met through the collaborative efforts of students, faculty, and administrative staff, who engage in mutual coordination. This synergistic approach proves instrumental in successfully addressing and managing the complexities inherent in time management and crowd control during various activities and events.

Best Practice 2

Title of the practice: - “Waghire Bazaar 2023-2024”.

Objective of the Practice:

The Waghire Bazaar initiative is designed to cultivate a broad spectrum of entrepreneurial and professional skills among students by providing a real-world platform for them to apply theoretical knowledge gained in the classroom. Specific objectives include:

- Enhancing entrepreneurship and self-employment skills.
- Fostering creativity and management capabilities in organizing various activities.
- Developing innovative and creative thinking.
- Encouraging understanding of business ethics and professional skills.
- Providing a basic understanding of management and marketing skills.
- Enhancing decision-making, communication, and negotiation skills.
- Teaching strategies for capital generation and teamwork.
- Improving practical skills and employability.
- Building self-confidence and personal development.

The Context: The Waghire Bazaar serves multiple educational and community-oriented purposes:

1. Educational Enhancement: It offers a practical learning environment for students to apply classroom knowledge to manage and operate a business, enhancing their programmatic skills in entrepreneurship and management.

2. Economic Empowerment: By encouraging students to develop and market their own business ideas, the bazaar aims to foster financial independence and entrepreneurial skills.
3. Community Engagement: The event also serves as a community engagement tool, attracting not just students but local residents, thus enhancing the relationship between the college and the local community.
4. Skill Development: Running the bazaar allows students to hone soft skills such as communication, teamwork, problem-solving, organizational, and time-management skills.

The Practice: Organized by the Department of Commerce & Research Centre in conjunction with the college's sports day on January 12, 2024, Waghire Bazaar turned into a dynamic marketplace. Students from all departments participated by setting up 15 diverse stalls that offered a range of products, services, and food items, demonstrating their understanding of business operations. The event not only showcased student creativity but also their ability to engage in profit-sharing and capital generation in a real-market scenario.

Evidence of Success: The success of the Waghire Bazaar can be quantitatively and qualitatively seen in the enthusiastic participation of the students and the rankings awarded to various stalls:

Sr. No	Participants	Academic Year	Menu	Results
1	Shitole Shravni Jatap Asmita Gobade Jyoti Shinde sharvari	S.Y. B. Com	Thalipeeth	1st Ranked
2	Paigude Rakshanda Jadhav Ashwini Jagtap Utkarsha	T.Y. B. Com	Bhel and Pani puri	2nd Ranked
3	Mehta Kushal Shirke Pranav Shegar Vaibhav	F.Y.B.VOC(RM)	Idli Sambar	3rd Ranked

These results highlight not only the business acumen of the participants but also the effective application of their academic learning in a practical setting.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required: Managing such a large event alongside regular academic responsibilities posed significant challenges, including time management and crowd control. However, these were effectively addressed through meticulous planning and cooperation among students, faculty, and staff. The event required careful coordination and adequate resources to ensure that both the academic and event schedules were maintained without disruption.

Conclusion: The Waghire Bazaar exemplifies a best practice in blending academic learning with practical application, significantly contributing to student development in entrepreneurship and business management. It not only supports the academic mission of the institution but also strengthens community ties and enhances the educational experience through practical engagement.
