| Sr.No. | Name of the resource Person | Date | Time |
|--------|--------------------------------|------|--|
| 1 | Dr. Varsha Shriram | | Inauguration function 10.00am to 1.30 pm 2.00pm to 5.00 pm |

The Department of Botany organized a one-day training program on Plant Tissue Culture for students, aiming to provide insights into various techniques, from basic to advanced, including Agrobacterium-mediated transformation. Dr. Varsha Shriram, an expert in plant tissue culture from Ramkrishna More Mahavidyalaya, Akurdi, served as the guest speaker and demonstrator. During the session, she discussed the current scenario of plant tissue culture, highlighting its significance in plant biotechnology and job opportunities. The workshop had 50 student participants who benefited from hands-on training, and all six faculty members from the Botany department were actively involved. The program included a welcome function, theoretical sessions on PTC, and hands-on experiments covering media preparation, seed inoculation, embryo, shoot, and leaf culture. The following day involved theoretical explanations and practical sessions on transformation and synthetic seed preparation conducted by the students.
